Room 309, 3rd Floor
- 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM – Dinner
Room 309, 3rd Floor
- 8:00 PM– 9:00 PM – Presentation
Dr. Annalisa Crannell, Franklin & Marshall College, "Math and Art: The Good, the Bad, and the Pretty", Heineman Ecumenical & Cultural Center

A dedicated teacher committed to excellence, a serious scholar, a popular son of South Boston, and a gentleman, Ken Preskenis had a passion for mathematics and for sharing that love with others, especially, youngsters. He joined the faculty at Framingham State College in 1977 after teaching at Newton College and then at Boston College for a total of 14 years. Ken was the author of a number of articles in analysis and mathematics education, a regular attendee and contributor at MAA/NES meetings, a South Boston Athletic Hall of Famer, and a recipient of the Michael E. Glynn South Boston Community Service Award. The Kenneth J. Preskenis Scholarship Fund has been established in his memory at Framingham State College.

We thank

- Framingham State College Office of College Advancement for sponsoring the Reception with special thanks to the Alumni Association of Framingham State College
- Sodexo for its support
- Hampton Inn and Conference Center – Natick for providing accommodations for Dr. Crannell
- Brooks/Cole, Cengage Learning
- Shana Adams, Ralph Eddy, and Dining Services for preparing the buffet and the reception
- Kevin FitzGerald for making the arrangements and reservations and for setting up the rooms for the reception, the dinner, and Dr. Crannell's presentation

Please join us again next year for the Ninth Annual NES/MAA Dinner Meeting in Memory of Kenneth J. Preskenis.
